From Islam to Christ Derya Little 2017-06-19 Born and raised in Muslim Turkey, Derya Little wandered far and wide in search of her true home. After her parents' divorce, she rejected her family's Islamic faith and became an atheist. During her stormy adolescence, she tried to convince a Christian missionary that there is no God but was converted to Christ instead. Her winding path through the riddles of God was not over, however. While attending a Turkish university and serving as a Christian youth minister, Derya began to compare the teachings of Protestantism and Catholicism, and during her doctoral studies in England, she entered the Catholic Church. Ultimately, she ended up in the United States, where she has become a citizen and has settled down to raise a family. Derya's story provides a window into both Islam and modernity. It shows that the grace and the mercy of God know no bounds. Rather, the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ reaches souls in the most unlikely places.

Women Living Well Courtney Joseph 2013-10-08 Women desire to live well. However, living well in this modern world is a challenge. The pace of life, along with the new front porch of social media, has changed the landscape of our lives. Women have been told for far too long that being on the go and accumulating more things will make their lives full. As a result, we grasp for the wrong things in life and come up empty. God created us to walk with him; to know him and to be loved by him. He is our living well and when we drink from the water he continually provides, it will change us. Our marriages, our parenting, and our homemaking will be transformed. Mommy-blogger Courtney Joseph is a cheerful realist. She tackles the challenge of holding onto vintage values in a modern world, starting with the keys to protecting our walk with God. No subject is off-limits as she moves on to marriage, parenting, and household management. Rooted in the Bible, her practical approach includes tons of tips that are perfect for busy moms, including: Simple Solutions for Studying God's Word How to Handle Marriage, Parenting, and Homemaking in a Digital Age 10 Steps to Completing Your Husband Dealing With Disappointed Expectations in Motherhood Creating Routines that Bring Rest Pursuing the Discipline and Diligence of the Proverbs 31 Woman There is nothing more important than fostering your faith, building your marriage, training your children, and creating a haven for your family. Journey With Jesus Patti Dansereau 2020-11-06 JOURNEY WITH JESUS Orphans, Sarah and Joshua, embark on an amazing journey of discipleship after Jesus heals Joshua of leprosy. With no home, they decide the only place they can go is to Jerusalem to find their aunt whom they've never met. But in the dark of the evening, they run into Jesus and spend the night with Him and His group of followers. Around the campfire, the apostles share stories about how Jesus called them to discipleship, sparking the desire in Sarah. The next day, she musters up the courage to ask Jesus if they can be disciples too. Jesus is pleased to have them join Him, but warns them that He's only going as far as Jerusalem. And so begins their special training as disciples. Over the next months they meet many people, listen to Jesus speak to the crowds and heal people, and they learn their own lessons along the way, the most important of all being how much Jesus loves them.

Christ Our Saviour E. G. White 2015-01-23 Some 115 original illustrations, 29 full page. Not a photocopy, but text all reset in easy-to read font, and illustrations improved. Adapted in the 1890s for children and new Christians from E. G. White material, but a blessing for all levels of believers. Excellent introduction to the gospel as revealed in the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. Preface: THE story of the earthly life of Christ our Saviour is written without words on every feature of nature, in every phase of human experience, in every fact of life. We can never fully realize how deep is the impression, how widespread is the influence, of the life of Jesus of Nazareth. Every blessing of every kind comes to us through that connection between Heaven and earth which was formed when the Lord of glory espoused the cause of a world lost in sin. The infinite pathos of that story has inspired the pen of the learned and the tongue of the eloquent. But it is best told in childlike language. The wonderful spectacle needs no human coloring. Its glory surpasses the art of men. It shines brightest in its own luster. In these pages no effort is made toward artificial embellishment. The plain story, as told by one who is moved by a deep sense of the infinite proportions of the subject, has been put into the language of the young. In its simplicity not only does it speak to the hearts of the young, but it meets the desire expressed by us all in the familiar song—"Tell me the story simply, as to a little child." May it be received in the same simplicity and purity of faith. †Chapter Titles The Birth of Jesus Jesus Presented in the Temple The Visit of the Wise Men The Flight Into Egypt Child-Life of Jesus Days of Conflict The Baptism The Temptation Early Ministry Teachings of Christ Sabbath-Keeping The Good Shepherd Riding Into Jerusalem "Take These Things Hence" At the Passover Supper In Gethsemane The Betrayal and Arrest Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrim Judas Before Pilate Before Herod Condemned by Pilate Calvary Death of Christ In Joseph's Tomb "He Is Risen" Go Tell My Disciples Witnesses The Ascension Coming Again A Day of Judgment The Home of the Saved

This colorful book is packed with activities that will engage children's imaginations as they learn the biblical story of the life of Jesus. The text begins with the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem and moves through Jesus' visit to the Temple, his teachings and his miracles, and his death and Resurrection. The story culminates with Jesus' Ascension into heaven and his eternal love for us. The book includes more than 65 stickers and an answer page. Activities include coloring pages, mazes, connect-the-dots, sticker activities, and more. Children will love the colorful art and will remain engaged in this overview of the life of Jesus. Ages 4-7.

On Noah's Ark Jan Brett 2003-09-29 Jan Brett's intricate illustrations make a stunning picture book of a favorite story--this time featuring Noah's granddaughter. As the floodwaters rise, she helps take the animals onto the ark and get them settled down. But it's not easy when giraffes are sleeping next to pandas and lions are curled up with turkeys. Finally the gentle rocking of the ark lulls them all to sleep until the waters recede and Grandpa Noah, his family, and all the animals leave the ark. This simple telling, combined with extraordinary illustrations of every animal imaginable, makes On Noah's Ark perfect for young and old.

The Advent Storybook Laura Richie 2018-10-01 Beginning with Creation, The Advent Storybook invites your family on a beautiful, chronological journey through ancient stories, tracing God's faithful promise to send a Rescuer—Jesus. Each of the 25 Bible stories begins with a key verse and ends with a thoughtful question, helping you and your children think and talk about the reason we celebrate Jesus' birth. This year, begin a new Christmas tradition. Create memories your family will cherish. Sit down together and remember how much we need a Rescuer—and how amazing it is that He came!

Berkhof's Systematic Theology Revised Louis Berkhof 2019-09-06 Considered one of the best books on Systematic Theology ever written, it covers all the basics on the reality of God, the atonement of Christ and the final state of man and the last things. Anyone that wishes to study theology would be wise to read this book as many in the Reformed tradition hold that this book is a landmark book in its field. Now in larger print!

The Nature of Christ H.H. Pope Shenouda III 1985-01-01 The nature of Christ is a very important subject that caused a serious dissension within the Church in the fifth century, in 451 AD. When the theological dialogue started as an effort towards the unity of churches, the subject had to be discussed. Therefore, our Orthodox Church found it necessary to issue a book which presents its concept in this regard in a language fit for theological dialogues. This subject (the Nature of Christ) was taught by me to the students of the Seminary "St. Mark Theological College" in 1984 in the form of lectures which I delivered to them in St. Bishoy Monastery, Sheheit Desert, as part of the courses of comparative Theology. The lectures were printed merely for the use of the students. The same lectures were afterwards translated into English in Ottawa, Canada, in 1980 and became available in English only for six years... We had to print them in Arabic for the students of the Seminary and its branches and for the benefit of those who are interested in theological studies whether ministers or ordinary individuals.. and whoever has the desire-from other churches to be acquainted with our concept of Christology. The first theological dialogue we attended on this subject was in Vienna, Austria in September 1971 AD convened by the ProOriente Group. In this dialogue we reached a theological formula that was accepted by our Catholic brothers and those in the old Oriental orthodox churches: the Syrians, Arminians, Ethiopians and Indians. It was an important dialogue indeed, for the dissension that occurred in the fifth century had distorted the face of every church before the other.. But now the way is open for a common understanding. Then, there was an official agreement with the Catholic churches after 17 years of differences (since 1988), based on the previous understanding. The agreement was recorded in a concise "Statement" which you will find at the end of this book. There was another dialogue, in more detail, with our brothers in the Byzantine Orthodox Churches in St. Bishoy Monastery, Sheheit Desert in 1989 AD. It was attended by the theologians of twenty Orthodox Churches and was followed by another meeting of the priestly representatives of the Orthodox churches in Chambesy, Geneva, in 1990. Now, seeing it is necessary to make our people acquainted with the details and evidences that prove our concept of the Nature of Christ, and since the Pro-Oriente Group is convening a religious conference for the representatives of all Churches at the end of October 1991 to present to them the Agreed Statement on Christology. And since we were asked to present a paper on the subject and deliver it as a lecture in the conference. Therefore, we proceeded to print the former lectures delivered in the Seminary in 1984 as a book to be presented to the conference and to be available in Arabic and in English for all who are interested. Pope Shenouda III
